BANKRUPTCY

By HAROLD REMINGTON.

Referee in Bankruptcy, Cleveland, Ohio, and Lecturer on Law of Bankruptcy, Western Reserve University.

This work has many features to distinguish it from other books upon Bankruptcy. Among them may be enumerated its

ANALYTICAL TREATMENT OF THE SUBJECT,

it being the first work on Bankruptcy to attempt a logical arrangement as distinguished from mere annotation of the Bankruptcy Acts.

Another feature is its

COPIOUS EXTRACTS FROM THE OPINIONS OF THE COURTS,

which will prove of the greatest value to the lawyer in briefing any particular question, and will in a measure serve as a substitute where the attorney has not access to the Bankruptcy Reports.

The author has had invaluable experience as Referee in Bankruptcy for many years; and in addition to a most exhaustive research of the authorities has brought to bear upon his subject great natural ability and a most unusual familiarity and grasp of his topic, resulting in the production of a work which the publishers confidently believe will at once take its place as the standard work on Bankruptcy.

Virginia Decisions

.....TWO VOLUMES.....

277 Virginia Cases which have never been officially reported.

One complete Index.
One Table of Cases.

The edition consists of two volumes in uniform style with Virginia Reports, (official edition), and contains two hundred and seventy-seven cases, many of them of great importance. The collection comprises all cases in the Virginia Law Journal, Virginia Law Register, and South-eastern Reporter that are not reported in Virginia Reports, besides a number that have never before been reported.

The two volumes contain one complete index of the cases in both volumes and one alphabetical table of cases.

This publication places in reach of the profession many very important Virginia decisions, of which they have heretofore had practically no use. To illustrate its importance it is only necessary to say that these volumes contain one hundred and forty-one decisions of the present Court of Appeals that have not been officially reported.

"In these volumes are collected the unreported opinions of the Supreme Court of Appeals and of the Special Court of Appeals, between the years 1871 and 1900. Whether the collection contains all of the unreported opinions delivered in this interval, is not stated. A number of the cases are briefly annotated. The profession will find these volumes extremely useful, and the publishers deserve the thanks of the bench and bar for their enterprise in collecting these bona waviata, and putting them in such handsome and accessible form. The collection is especially valuable for the opinions of the Special Court of Appeals. This court was composed of excellent material, and its opinions are well worth permanent preservation."—Virginia Law Register.

Two volumes, best sheep binding.

Price $10, net.

Sent express paid if order is accompanied by the price.

The American and English Annotated Cases is a new series of important current Reports that has met with the immediate favor of the Bench and Bar of the United States and Canada.

THE CASES.

Two hundred and fifty cases are reported in full in each volume.

The American cases include the decisions of both the state and federal courts.

The strong English and Canadian courts are represented by those cases which are of value to the American lawyer.

Each case is selected with an eye single to its importance and the strength of the opinions.

The cases are selected solely from the official reports, and the official citation is always given.

The pagination of the official reports is preserved throughout the opinions for purposes of citation.

THE NOTES.

Every case is annotated.

The notes are to fine points, like those you brief in your practice:

They are written by experts, lawyers who have spent years in learning how to find authorities.

They are helpful notes, because they present compactly all the decisions in point, weigh authorities, and give the reason of the law.

The notes are not monographs, nor are they mere digests of special subjects.

They are thorough. The notes in a single volume consider and state the law of about sixteen thousand cases.

The average of 16,000 citations of cases in the notes to each volume is an average of 64 to each of the 250 reported cases the volume contains. This means that an experienced law writer has searched for and read that number of cases for the point under discussion in the note he is writing and that it has taken him on an average of over three days' hard work to do it, and all this expert labor, including a fully reported case, you receive for Two Cents.

The Cumulative Index to the notes, which is printed in every volume, enables you to find any note in the series by consulting but one alphabet.

The American and English Annotated Cases is published by subscription, four royal octavo volumes annually. Price Five Dollars per volume, delivered.

Can you afford to delay longer placing in your library this valuable set of selected Reports?
